Cultural Access New England
(www.ca-ne.org)

CA-NE was founded in 2011 to advance access to cultural facilities in New England for people with disabilities of all types. CA-NE's members believe that increasing accessibility for people with disabilities increases accessibility for everyone. We invite cultural institutions from all across New England to join in the effort!

Coming up next!
"An Introduction to Audio Description: Making your Cultural Program and Experience Accessible to People who are Blind or Have Low-Vision"
December 12, 2013 - 10:00 AM to 2:00 PM - Wheelock Family Theatre
180 The Riverway, Boston MA 02215
$10 Registration required: http://audiodescription.eventbrite.com or www.ca-ne.org

Previous seminars, workshops and events

Train the Trainers - March 2012 - Museum of Fine Arts
In-depth session on welcoming visitors with disabilities, for people in cultural institutions managing and supervising frontline staff.

ADA Compliance… and Beyond - May 2012 - Massachusetts State House
The latest on ADA regulations and how to go beyond basic ADA compliance to become more welcoming and inclusive to all visitors

The Kennedy Center's Leadership Exchange in Arts and Disability (LEAD)
August 2012 - Museum of Science, MFA, all over Boston
Annual conference on technologies, regulations, best practices, and legal issues for museums, parks and other cultural institutions.

Accessible Technologies for Museums, Theaters, Visitor Centers - Oct. 2012 - WGBH Headquarters
Transforming web sites, multimedia, tour guides into fully inclusive tools.

December 6, 2012 - Wheelock Family Theatre
Making your Theater More Welcoming to People with Disabilities
Responding to complaints, exceeding expectations, inclusive vs. special audience events, and more.

To join CA-NE or RSVP for our events, send an e-mail to: info@CA-NE.org
Find us on Facebook @ https://www.facebook.com/CulturalAccessNewEngland

CANE Steering Committee: John F. Kennedy Library and Museum, Mass. State House, MFA Boston, Museum of Science, VSA Massachusetts, WGBH, Wheelock Family Theatre