

INSTITUTIONAL AFFILIATE MEMBERSHIP

Welcome to the New England Museum Association! As an Institutional Affiliate Member, you have access to the very best professional development, advocacy, and networking programs for the museum field that our region has to offer. Plus, you're linked to thousands of museum colleagues who are ready to offer you the professional friendships that make a rewarding career. Here are your member benefits.

Professional Development and Networking

Annual Conference: A three-day meeting with more than 60 concurrent sessions, attended by almost 1000 colleagues. The 99th Annual NEMA Conference will be held October 25-27, 2017, in Falmouth, MA. (You qualify for member discounts.)

Workshops: One-day programs that offer high-quality, affordable training, developed by museum professionals for museum professionals. (You qualify for member discounts.)

Professional Affinity Groups: NEMA's PAGs are your way to plug into discipline-level learning and networking. There's no charge to participate.

Lunch with NEMA: Informal professional development on the last Wednesday of the month.

Regional Networking Events: Join your colleagues at these fun, informal NEMA-hosted events to mingle, relax, catch up with old friends and meet new ones.

Museum Admission Program: Show your proof of NEMA membership (delivered by email) for discounted admission at participating museum throughout the region.

Publications - Print and Online

New England Museums Now: An electronic journal devoted to vital issues in the museum profession that also provides up-to-date information on what's happening in the New England museum community.

NEMA eNews: An email update sent out in between issues of New England Museums Now.

NEMA Jobs: The best source for museum job postings in the region. This e-publication contains dozens of listings and is updated continuously.

National Comparative Salary & Benefits Study: A comprehensive study of national museums published every three years in a collaborative effort between the American Alliance of Museums and the six regional museum associations.

NEMA Marketplace: A valuable online directory listing companies and consultants offering services and products to museums.

Resources

Insurance & Pension: Give your employees access to guaranteed life insurance, dental/vision plans, long/short-term disability plans, and retirement plans — all at significant discounts for NEMA members.

Online Discussion Group: Get answers to your toughest questions. Lend your expertise to a colleague's problem. NEMA Networking is only open to members and is practical and popular.

Museum Document Exchange: Learn best practices from your colleagues: collections/personnel policies, strategic plans, bylaws, and more from the region's museums.

NEMA 911: Got a problem? Give NEMA a call. We'll give you rapid-response assistance. Call 781-641-0013 or email nema@nemanet.org.
