Celebrating 100 YEARS of NEMA

From the Director

The New England Museum Association Publication Awards celebrate the often unacknowledged outreach and communication work that museums do regularly through print and digital media. Good design easily and quickly connects museums with their communities in an aesthetically pleasing way. The winning institutions and the designers who worked with them should be commended for setting the bar so high.

NEMA is pleased to announce the winners of this year’s annual Publication Awards. Judging was especially challenging and exciting this year, with 139 entries from 53 museums in 13 categories. The winning publications will be on display at the 2019 Annual NEMA Conference this November 6 – 8, in Burlington, VT.

Executive Director
